

FEDERATION OF PHILIPPINE INDUSTRIES, INC.

The VOICE of INDUSTRY

Press release

8th FPI Golf Classic to tee-off on March 22

The Federation of Philippine Industries (FPI), a group of local manufacturing industries, will hold its 8th Annual Golf Classic Tournament on March 22, 2010, at the Tagaytay Midlands Golf Course in Tagaytay City.

As in the past, over 150 senior executives from the country's Top 1,000 Corporations are expected to play in the golf tournament and get the chance to meet and compete with their fellow industrialists on the golf course.

Player reservations are now open and will be on a first-come-first-served basis. Registration fee is P4,000.00 which will cover the cost of the following: green fee, golf cart for two people, caddie fee, buffet lunch, raffle ticket and giveaway items. Besides, there will be major hole-in-one prizes to be announced later.

To arrange for reservations now, interested golf players may get in touch with Jojit Yap or Caren Manzenares of the FPI Secretariat through tel. nos. 722-3409, 584-9642 & 727-4359; fax no. 722-9737; or the following e-mails: fpi@fpi.ph, fpi@philonline.com, fpi@pltdsl.net and fpi.secretariat@gmail.com.

The tournament is organized by the FPI Golf Committee composed of its Chair Ramon Agustines of Philippine Association of Battery Manufacturers, currently also FPI Director/Assistant Treasurer; Vice Chair George Chua of Arms Corporation of the Philippines, who is also the FPI Treasurer and Chair of the FPI Management Committee, and the following members: Renato Ermita of AGC Flat Glass Philippines, Inc, currently also the FPI Vice President for Manufacturing; FPI Director/Ways and Means Chair Henry Tañedo of the Tin Can Makers Association of the Philippines; FPI Director Edwin Umali of Mabuhay Vinyl Corporation; FPI Director Abeto Uy of Philippine Steel Holdings Corp.; FPI Director Chris J. Nelson of Philip Morris; FPI Director Jose Alvarez of Philippine Phosphate Fertilizer Corporation; Claro Arriola of the Textile Mills Association of the Philippines; Ernie Hernandez of Well Ads & Marketing Agency; and FPI President Jesus L. Arranza of Coconut Oil Refiners Association. – End –